

Imperial College
London

Centre for Neuropsychopharmacology

In conjunction with the Beckley Foundation

Invites you to:

A discussion on scientific research with psychedelic drugs

Wednesday 12th June 2013 10am-6pm

Perception • Consciousness • Psychiatry

Chaired by Prof David Nutt

Wolfson Education Centre
Lecture theatre 1

Major sponsors

wellcome trust

Guarantors
of Brain

9:30am: Tea in the Wolfson Education Centre

10am: Welcome

10:05-10:40am:

Prof David Nutt (Imperial): Why study psychedelic drugs?

10:55-11:30am:

Dr Robin Carhart-Harris (Imperial): fMRI & MEG studies with psilocybin

11:45-12:20am:

Prof Francesc Artigas (Barcelona): Pharmacology of psychedelics

12:35-1:10pm Lunch in Wolfson Education Centre

1:10-1:45pm:

Dr Enzo Tagliazucchi (Frankfurt): Psilocybin fMRI: Network measures

2:00-2:50pm:

Updates session: 10 min presentations by researchers working with psychedelics at Imperial, Bristol, Oxford & Barcelona

3:10-3:25pm: Tea and biscuits

3:25-4:05pm:

Prof Jack Cowan (Chicago): A model of how geometric hallucinations are generated in the brain

4:20-5:00pm:

Dr Charles Grob (UCLA): Psilocybin-assisted psychotherapy at UCLA

5:15-5:40pm:

Erica Rex: My experience as a patient in a psilocybin clinical trial at John Hopkins University, Baltimore

6pm onwards: Canapés and drinks on the Burlington Danes mezzanine

Please email r.carhart-harris@imperial.ac.uk for more information

This is a free, invitation-only event with a limited capacity. Please email Robin: r.carhart-harris@imperial.ac.uk to confirm your attendance

